BOMBAY ACT No. XIII OF 1866[a].

(The assent of the Governor General of India to this Act was first published by the Governor of Bombay on the 15th November, 1866.)

An Act to provide for the Attendance and Examination of Witnesses before the Council of the Governor of Bombay assembled for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the attendance of witnesses before the Council of the Governor of Bombay assembled for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations and for the examination of such witnesses; It is enacted as follows:—

Governor may by summons require person to appear

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor of Bombay, by a summons under the hand of the Secretary, to require the attendance before the Council of the Governor of Bombay assembled for the purpose of making Laws and before Council.

Regulations, at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons, of any person residing or being within the Presidency of Bombay, whose evidence shall in the judgment of the said Council be material with reference to any measure, Bill or Act then under consideration by the said Council, and by such summons to require the person so summoned to produce before the said Council all such books, deeds, writings and documents as to the said Council shall appear necessary for obtaining information as to the matter so under consideration;

and every person so summoned shall according to the exigency of the summons attend before the said Council and produce such books, deeds, writings and documents as shall be in his possession, power or control.

Administration of oath.

2. It shall be lawful for the said Secretary or any other officer appointed in that behalf by the Governor of Bombay to administer an oath [a], in such form as to the said Council shall seem fit, to any person appearing in obedience to such summons as aforesaid; and the person to whom such oath [a] shall be administered shall be bound to state the truth. But nothing herein contained shall prevent such person from giving evidence without oath [a] if the said Council shall think it expedient that the evidence should be so given.

Powers against persons failing to appear.

3. If any person upon whom any such summons shall be served by the delivery thereof to him, or leaving thereof at his usual or last known place of abode, shall without such cause as may be deemed reasonable by the said Governor of Bombay fail to appear before the said Council at the time and place mentioned in the summons, or shall refuse to make oath [a] as required, or shall not make answer to such questions as shall be put to him touching the matter under consideration as aforesaid, or shall refuse or fail without such cause as may be deemed reasonable by the said Governor of Bombay to produce to the said Council any book, deed or writing in his possession, power or control as by the said Council he shall be required to produce (whether mentioned in the summons or not), the Governor of Bombay shall, on the report of the said Council that such failure or refusal has taken place, have the power by warrant under his hand to direct that such person be apprehended, and committed to and detained in close custody in a place and for a time specified in the warrant, until he shall comply to the satisfaction of the said Council with such requisitions as have been made on him touching his examination.

The warrant shall specify the person or persons by whom such apprehension, committal and detention shall be made.

[a] Words repealed by Bom. Act III of 1886 are omitted.

4. Whenever a summons is issued for the attendance of a witness under this Act, such witness shall be entitled to receive from the Collector or Commissioner of the district or place in which the witness resides such expenses as he would have been entitled to receive if summoned as a witness before the principal Court of original civil jurisdiction within the local limits of which he shall be residing. Expenses of witnesses.
